

OPEN-ENDED MEETING OF GOVERNMENTAL EXPERTS 9-13 MAY 2011

Summary Report: Side Event

Title: “Measurability and Implementation – Country-by-country comparisons of marking, tracing, record-keeping and other norms”

Date: 13 May 2011

Sponsor: co-organized by GunPolicy.org and the Permanent Missions of Australia and New Zealand to the United Nations

M. Philip Alpers presented during this side event the website Gun Policy (www.gunpolicy.org).

Gun Policy is an online source of information for armed violence and gun laws, country by country.

It provides:

- Updated news on the topic of small arms around the world
- Updated laws and gun regulations worldwide
- Technical information and basic data based on national reports, NGOs reports and research centres' studies.
- Country by country comparison features.

Gun Policy is supported by the Small Arms Survey and the governments of Australia, Switzerland and Netherlands.
